5 including:

6 (1) the present value of the total amount of monthly
7 periodic child support payments from the date the child support
8 order is rendered until the month in which the child turns 18 years
9 of age, based on the amount of the periodic monthly child support 10 payment under the child support order;

11 (2) the present value of the total amount of health 12 insurance and dental insurance premiums payable for the benefit of 13 the child from the date the child support order is rendered until 14 the month in which the child turns 18 years of age, based on the cost 15 of health insurance and dental insurance for the child ordered to be 16 paid; and

17 (3) in the case of a disabled child under 18 years of 10 care or dental coverage for a child under Subsection (d)(5), if the 11 obligor has other minor dependents covered under the same health or 12 dental insurance plan, the court shall divide the total cost to the 14 including the child, covered under the plan.

15 SECTION 12. Section 154.064, Family Code, is amended to 16 read as follows:

17 Sec. 154.064. MEDICAL SUPPORT AND DENTAL SUPPORT FOR CHILD
18 PRESUMPTIVELY PROVIDED BY OBLIGOR. The guidelines for support of a 19 child are based on the assumption that the court will order the 20 obligor to provide medical support and dental support for the child 21 in addition to the amount of child support calculated in accordance 22 with those guidelines.

23 SECTION 13. The heading to Subchapter D, Chapter 154,
24 Family Code, is amended to read as follows:

25 SUBCHAPTER D. MEDICAL SUPPORT AND DENTAL SUPPORT FOR CHILD

26 SECTION 14. Subchapter D, Chapter 154, Family Code, is

Sec. 154.1815. DENTAL SUPPORT ORDER. (a) In this section, "reasonable cost" means the cost of a dental insurance premium that does not exceed 1.5 percent of the obligor's annual resources, as described by Section 154.062(b), if the obligor is responsible under a dental support order for the cost of dental insurance coverage for only one child. If the obligor is responsible under a dental support order for the cost of dental insurance coverage for more than one child, "reasonable cost" means the total cost of dental insurance coverage for all children for which the obligor is responsible under a dental support order that does not exceed 1.5 percent of the obligor's annual resources, as described by Section 154.062(b).

(b) In a suit affecting the parent-child relationship or in a proceeding under Chapter 159, the court shall render an order for the dental support of the child as provided by this section and Section 154.1825.

(c) Before a hearing on temporary orders, or a final order if no hearing on temporary orders is held, the court shall require the parties to the proceedings to disclose in a pleading or other document whether the child is covered by dental insurance and, if the child is covered, the identity of the insurer providing the coverage, the policy number, which parent is responsible for payment of any insurance premium for the coverage, whether the coverage is provided through a parent's employment, and the cost of the premium. If dental insurance is not in effect for the child, the parties must disclose to the court whether either parent has access to dental insurance at a reasonable cost to the obligor.

1 (d) In rendering temporary orders, the court shall, except 2 for good cause shown, order that any dental insurance coverage in 3 effect for the child continue in effect pending the rendition of a 4 final order, except that the court may not require the continuation
5 of any dental insurance that is not available to the parent at a 6 reasonable cost to the obligor. If dental insurance coverage is not 7 in effect for the child or if the insurance in effect is not 8 available at a reasonable cost to the obligor, the court shall, 9 except for good cause shown, order dental insurance coverage for 10 the child as provided by Section 154.1825.

11 (e) On rendering a final order the court shall:

12 (1) make specific findings with respect to the manner
13 in which dental insurance coverage is to be provided for the child, 14 in accordance with the priorities identified under Section 15 154.1825; and

16 (2) except for good cause shown or on agreement of the 17 parties, require the parent ordered to provide dental insurance
18 coverage for the child as provided by Section 154.1825 to produce 19 evidence to the court's satisfaction that the parent has applied 20 for or secured dental insurance or has otherwise taken necessary 21 action to provide for dental insurance coverage for the child, as 22 ordered by the court.

23 SECTION 15. Subchapter D, Chapter 154, Family Code, is 24 amended by adding Section 154.1825 to read as follows:

25 Sec. 154.1825. DENTAL CARE COVERAGE FOR CHILD. (a) In 26 this section:

27 (1) "Accessibility" means the extent to which dental

1 insurance coverage for a child provides for the availability of 2 dental care within a reasonable traveling distance and time from 3 the child's primary residence, as determined by the court.

4 (2) "Reasonable cost" has the meaning assigned by 5 Section 154.1815(a).

6 (b) The court shall consider the cost, accessibility, and 7 quality of dental insurance coverage available to the parties and 8 shall give priority to dental insurance coverage available through 9 the employment of one of the parties if the coverage is available at 10 a reasonable cost to the obligor.

11 (c) In determining the manner in which dental care coverage 12 for the child is to be ordered, the court shall render its order in 13 accordance with the following priorities, unless a party shows good 14 cause why a particular order is not in the best interest of the 15 child:

16 (1) if dental insurance is available for the child
17 through a parent's employment or membership in a union, trade
18 association, or other organization at reasonable cost, the court 19 shall order that parent to include the child in the parent's dental 20 insurance; or

21 (2) if dental insurance is not available for the child
22 under Subdivision (1) but is available to a parent from another 23 source and at a reasonable cost, the court may order that parent to 24 provide dental insurance for the child.

25 (d) If the parent ordered to provide dental insurance under 26 Subsection (c)(1) or (2) is the obligee, the court shall order the 27 obligor to pay the obligee, as additional child support, an amount

1 equal to the actual cost of dental insurance for the child, but not 2 to exceed a reasonable cost to the obligor. In calculating the 3 actual cost of dental insurance for the child, if the obligee has 4 other minor dependents covered under the same dental insurance 5 plan, the court shall divide the total cost to the obligee for the 6 insurance by the total number of minor dependents, including the 7 child covered under the plan.

8 SECTION 16. Section 154.183, Family Code, is amended to 9 read as follows:

10 Sec. 154.183. MEDICAL AND DENTAL SUPPORT ADDITIONAL SUPPORT
11 DUTY OF OBLIGOR. (a) An amount that an obligor is ordered to pay 12 as medical support or dental support for the child under this 13 chapter, including the costs of health insurance coverage or cash
14 medical support under Section 154.182 and the costs of dental 15 insurance under Section 154.1825:

16 (1) is in addition to the amount that the obligor is 17 required to pay for child support under the guidelines for child 18 support;

19 (2) is a child support obligation; and

20 (3) may be enforced by any means available for the 21 enforcement of child support, including withholding from earnings
22 under Chapter 158.

23 (b) If the court finds and states in the child support order
24 that the obligee will maintain health insurance coverage, dental 25 insurance coverage, or both, for the child at the obligee's 26 expense, the court shall increase the amount of child support to be 27 paid by the obligor in an amount not exceeding the actual cost to

1 the obligee for maintaining the ~~[health insurance]~~ coverage, as 2 provided under Sections ~~[Section]~~ 154.182(b-1) and 154.1825(d).

3 (c) As additional child support, the court shall allocate 4 between the parties, according to their circumstances:

5 (1) the reasonable and necessary health care expenses,
6 including vision and dental expenses, of the child that are not 7 reimbursed by health or dental insurance or are not otherwise
8 covered by the amount of cash medical support ordered under Section 9 154.182 ~~[154.182(b)(3)]~~; and

10 (2) amounts paid by either party as deductibles or 11 copayments in obtaining health care or dental care services for the 12 child covered under a health insurance or dental insurance policy.

17 requiring that dental insurance be provided for a child shall be 18 considered a change in the family circumstances of the employee or 19 member, for health insurance purposes and dental insurance
20 purposes, equivalent to the birth or adoption of a child.

21 (b) If the employee or member is eligible for dependent 22 health coverage or dependent dental coverage, the employer shall 23 automatically enroll the child for the first 31 days after the 24 receipt of the order or notice of the medical support order or the 25 dental support order under Section 154.186 on the same terms and 26 conditions as apply to any other dependent child.

27 SECTION 18. Section 154.185, Family Code, is amended to

1 read as follows:

2 Sec. 154.185. PARENT TO FURNISH INFORMATION. (a) The 3 court shall order a parent providing health insurance or dental
